GT Intensive Summer Russian in Riga & Saint Petersburg (Spring Track)

2017

May 14—July 16, 2017

Program fee: $3800 + $250 application fee

Includes:

- ground transportation and transportation between sites
- housing (homestay!)
- breakfasts and dinners
- health insurance
- cultural excursions
- books
- visa

*__Price excludes transatlantic airfare and tuition__. Final price subject to approval by Georgia Tech StudyAbroad Committee. Hope Scholarships apply and other funds may be available.

Application Deadline:
February 15

Payment in Full:
April 15

PREREQUISITES:

- RUSS 1001 or equiv
- good academic standing

Earn 9 Credit Hours
Earn IP Credit

The School of Modern Languages
613 Cherry Street
Atlanta, GA 30309
www.modlangs.gatech.edu

Please contact Dr. Stuart Goldberg for more information

sgoldberg@gatech.edu

Study Russian language for NINE weeks in Riga, Latvia and St. Petersburg, Russia

- 16+ hrs/week intensive Russian instruction, covering three semesters of Russian. Springboard into third-year Russian next fall!
- Homestays with Russian-speaking families.

The best way to learn Russian!

Cultural program, with excursions including

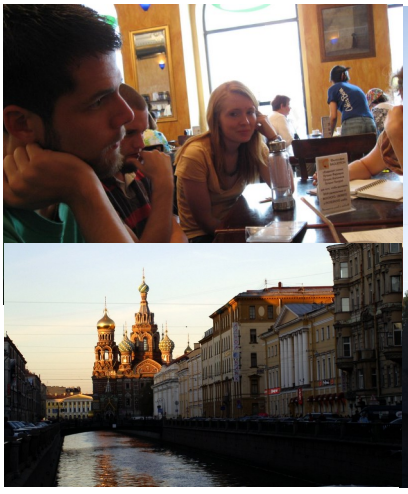
- Riga Old City
- Gauja national park and Sigulda castle
- St. Petersburg city tour
- the Hermitage
- Peterhof
- Kunstkamera
- 4 day Moscow trip: Moscow Kremlin, Tretyakov Gallery, Cosmos Museum, Victory Park, Romanov Chambers

Apply today. Spaces are limited.

http://www.oie.gatech.edu/apply



1. "Intensive Elementary Russian II" (3 credits, RUSS 1962)

2. "Intensive Intermediate Russian I" (3 credits, RUSS 2961)

3. "Intensive Intermediate Russian II" (3 credits, RUSS 2962)

Courses cover material introduced on-campus in RUSS 1002, 2001, and 2002. Focus on communicative skills and simultaneous development of all modalities (speaking, listening, reading and writing). Survey of fundamentals of Russian grammar, with some advanced topics. Introduction to Russian culture (short stories, songs, poems, film) . Surroundings, with opportunities to practice Russian in daily interactions throughout the day and at night in